Law Firm / Lawyer for Michael Skidmore

Plaintiff Michael Skidmore (Appellant and Cross-Appellee), as Trustee for the Randy Craig Wolfe Trust (“Skidmore” or “Plaintiff”), respectfully seeks leave of Court for permission to respond to the amicus briefs filed by the U.S. Government, the 123 Songwriters, and the NMPA/RIAA.

The brief submitted by the US Government misconstrues the law on the deposit copy issue, and raises several new points to which Skidmore needs to respond. Furthermore, the Government’s position on thin copyright, and its application to this case, also requires rebuttal. Lastly, because the US Government submitted the brief, it is sure to receive extra attention making it critical that Skidmore have a response on the record to the many incorrect assertions of fact and law made in the brief.

Appellant also requests permission to respond to the briefs from the 123 Songwriters and the NMPA and RIAA. Appellant’s responses will be the same in substance to the prior oppositions Skidmore filed when these amici first moved to submit briefs. Skidmore wants to make it clear that the amici briefs are in fact opposed by Skidmore and contain significant errors the court should be aware of.

Appellant Skidmore requests that his responses be due by August 30, 2019, which will not delay the hearing schedule and give the court and parties sufficient time to consider the briefs.

Counsel for Appellees have stated that they do not oppose this motion, but believe that Appellant should only be allowed to file a single combined brief in response to all three briefs. Appellant respectfully suggests that he be permitted to file a separate response to the Government's brief given its author, and a combined response to the 123 Songwriters and the NMPA/RIAA. However, Appellant leaves the form of response to the Court's discretion.

WHEREFORE, Appellant Michael Skidmore respectfully requests permission to respond to the US Government's amicus brief, the 123 Songwriter's brief, and the NMPA/ RIAA brief.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Francis Malofiy
